

David Maki is Associate Professor of Music Theory and Composition at the NIU School of Music, where he also serves as Assistant Director and Coordinator of Theory and Composition. His music has been performed widely at regional, national, and international venues by many diverse artists and ensembles. Recordings of his music are available on the Albany Records label. Maki's music has been described as "fresh and unusual" by All Music Guide, "vivid, languid, introspective" by American Record Guide and "meditative and beautiful" by Fanfare. Maki holds degrees in composition from NIU (B.M.), the University of Iowa (M.A.), and the University of Michigan (D.M.A.). More information is available at www.davidmakimusic.com.